SURPRISE BIRTHDAY DINNER.

A very pleasant surprise six o'clock dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. C. Boger, at their home 1716 Jo Johnston avenue, last Thursday evening. The occasion being the anniversary of the birth of their son, Mr. William D. Boger. The following menu was served:

Lettuce.	Salmon Salad.	Egg-nog.
Baked Turkey.	Oyster Stew.	Oyster Dressing.
Cranberry Sauce.	June Corn.	Candied Yams.
Kentucky Pone.	Light Rolls.	Black Coffee.
Celery.	Neapolitan Cream.	Fruit and Layer Cake.
Nuts.	Oranges.	Candies.

At the conclusion of the dinner young Mr. Boger expressed his appreciation of the kindness of his parents and his friends who had braved the inclement weather to be present. Throughout the evening music was furnished by a string band. Those present were Misses Grace Frank, Addie Fite, Charley Rosenberg, Messrs. William Boger, J. O. Battle, D. W. Crutcher.

BRENTWOOD NOTES.

Miss Sallie Sneed and Mr. Walter Rucker were united in Marriage last week. Rev. James Finnell, of Brook's Chapel M. E. Church, officiated. Mr. Rucker has a neat home on the Edmondson pike where they will live.

Mr. John Hunt, of Nashville visited relatives and friends in Brentwood last Sunday.

Mrs. Hubbard Newsome is on the sick list.

Miss Sallie J. Perkins has returned from a visit to Nashville.

Mr. Thomas Abernathy is still quite sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Covington spent last Sunday in Brentwood, the guest of friends.

Mrs. Lucretia Woodson, after fifteen days' pleasant vacation at home, returned last Monday to her school work on the Harding pike.

Mr. Woodson, of Columbia, visited his son, Mr. Mitchell Woodson, last week.

Mr. Crockett, the Brentwood grocer, offered to the one buying the largest cash purchase a $65 sewing machine. The contest grew hot and narrowed down between Messrs. Alex. Raines and Haywood Baines. These two gentlemen stubbornly disputed every inch of ground, but Mr. Raines finally came in on the home stretch and won the machine. Mr. Raines was highly congratulated by a large number of friends.

Masters Denny and Eugene Perkins and little Miss Lillie Perkins presented their teacher, Mrs. Cora Fields, with a very nice Christmas remembrance, which Mrs. Fields highly appreciated.

The Brooks Chapel Sunday School seems to be quite interested in Sunday work since the Christmas holidays. Last Sunday a good number of the children came back to school who had been absent for some months, also quite a number of the married ladies came in and joined the school, namely: Mrs. T. A. Thompson, Mrs. Lucretia Woodson, Mrs. R. E. Johnson, Jr., and Mrs. J. C. Crawley. Mrs. Woodson and Mrs. Crawley entered into an agreement with each other that if either of them is ever absent from the Sunday school any Sunday she is to pay a fine to the one that is present (5 cents) and the money is to go to the Sunday school treasury.

BISHOP TYREE LEAVES FOR THE WEST.

Bishop Evans Tyree will leave for St. Louis, Mo., Friday en route to Kansas City, Mo., to attend the Mid-winter session of the Bishop's Council of the A. M. E. Church. He will stop over in St. Louis and at other points, reaching Kansas City by the 17th. After the sessions are over he will return home to spend the remainder of the winter in quiet rest.

RECEPTION.

A reception in honor of Messrs. James and Palmer Ransom, of Louisville, Ky., was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Anderson, 639 Bass street, last Tuesday night. Quite a delightful time was had by all present. Frappe was served by Mrs. Nellie Williams. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. DeWees, Misses Maggie Hargraves, Annie Rucker, Rosa Shelby, Tabitha Claybrooks, Coleta Black, Loam Alexander, Johnnie Denny, Artie Ransome, Messrs. A. W. W. UPSHAW, President.
MISS MARY WORKS, Secretary.

A WHITE MINISTER SCORED.

I hope the next legislature will sweep every saloon out of Maury county. It is the white man's saloon that makes the negro rapist and other criminals. It seems to me that there is so much practical work of this kind to be done that we ought to stop writing newspaper articles about the "negro problem" and "the white man's country" and go to work and do something to uplift humanity.

FISK LITERARY CLUB.

The Fisk Literary Club held the first meeting of the new year at the home of Miss Lucy B. White, 218 Fourteenth avenue, North. The meeting was opened by the reading of a Psalm by Mrs. C. W. Brown and prayer by Dr. Grapt. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the Secretary, Miss Lillian Bright. Words of encouragement to the club were expressed by the President, Mrs. C. H. Phillips. Mrs. P. R. Burrus, Chairman of the Art Department, presented the following programme:

Solo—Mrs. Preston Taylor.
Essay—Art, Mrs. P. R. Burrus.
Solo—Miss Lucy B. White.

The club was favored by a short but very interesting address from Dr. Sarah Grant, who is traveling in the interest of the Orphan's and Old Folk's Home, of Alabama. Short talks were made by Mesdames Hadley, Bright and Miss Benson. At the close of the programme all retired to the dining room where a most elaborate and appetizing luncheon was served and good will, cheer and wit reigned supreme. In a few well-chosen words Mrs. Brown returned thanks for the Club to the hostess, after which each guest departed, expressing themselves as having thoroughly enjoyed the evening. Those present were Mesdames C. H. Phillips, C. O. Hadley, C. W. Brown, P. R. Burrus, M. J. Bright, Misses Janie Benson, L. A. Bright, Lucy B. White, Cerella Brown. Visitors, Mrs. Taylor and Dr. Sarah Grant.
